

THE SENTINEL.

"UNION, VIGILANCE, PERSEVERANCE."

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1841.

We are requested by many citizens of Marion county to announce NATHANIEL WEST as a candidate to fill the vacancy in the State Senate occasioned by the resignation of Gen. Robert Hanna [Election on Saturday, September 18th.]

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM SELLIVAN as a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of service of C. Scudder, Esq.

We are requested to announce JOHN HARRIS as a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of service of C. Scudder.

We are requested to announce DR. JAMES H. ELLIOTT, as candidate for Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives.

We are requested to announce the name of Col. E. M. BENSON, as candidate for Enrolling Clerk of the House of Representatives.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.

The charge for announcing the names of candidates in this paper, hereafter will be as follows: One dollar for three weeks, and 25 cents for every week thereafter. The cash always to be paid in advance. This is a new rule, and will not be departed from till the whig party leaders become honest.

THE DUTY OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE BANK TOUCHING THE VIOLATIONS OF THE CHARTER AT THE INDIANAPOLIS BRANCH.

The 6th section of the Bank charter designates four contingencies under which it may be lawful for the Bank to purchase, hold and convey real estate. The second is where it shall have been mortgaged to the Sentinel abusing Mr. Hannaman, the whig candidate. These fellows, who have souls that it would require the aid of one of Herschel's most powerful microscopes to see, even if they had any substance, will always be found pulling against the establishment of a National Bank. That would put a stop to their harvesting—Journal.

Mr. West the shavers' candidate! Well, that is laughable! What will Affred Harrison say to that? The shavers of the Bank support him too, we suppose! Well done, Vance!

It is another of Noel's base falsehoods, that "one of them writes articles for the Sentinel abusing Mr. Hannaman, the whig candidate." And this we believe to be a major falsehood.

And that perfidious scoundrel, that a National Bank could put a stop to brokers and shavers, is originally at least himself. No other brain could have originated such an idea.

Will the people look back and ask themselves if there were no brokers and shavers during the existence of a U. S. Bank? Who have made splendid fortunes by speculating on the necessities of the people, but the banks and the shavers connected with them? Who cheat the people of millions upon millions with impunity! Banks.

Who control the editor of the Journal—Bankshavers. Who has told him to withdraw from the contest on the bank question, and to "slare away" with the rest of us? Who controls the people of Indiana?

We have before stated that three of the most wealthy men in Indianapolis, satisfied the Branch here, by giving them real estate for about seventy thousand dollars, as a quid pro quo for their money. Thus, we contend, is a secret violation and service of the Bank charter. The Bank cannot hold real estate in order merely to postpone the payment of some favorite's debt, who is perfectly solvent, has good and noble to give, the best personal service to the State will afford. Who challenges the opinion of any intelligent disinterested lawyer to the contrary?

We understand that another of the juntas, after having used some ten or fifteen thousand dollars to speculate upon, tried his skill to get rich in various short ways, and who is able to give the best personal service in the State, is now about to quit the Bank with real estate. As to his character and the way he got rich, we shall treat hereafter, should charges of "scandalous falsehood" be against us render it necessary. He is said to be worth seventy-five thousand dollars.

Baden seed corn was misleading only one year—but he who learned the junta to sell over their notes in Bank without payment, and at last to pay the debt to the Bank in hand, has in our opinion, done the State a greater injury.

But we respectfully call on the President of the Bank to look into these outrages at this place, to bring the matter before the next State Board, and not suffer an outraged people, through their Representatives, to be at the expense of investigating these complaints.

AGRICULTURE AND MECHANICS.—For the past two years, the producer in this State has labored under great discouragements; and we owe it to ourselves and the State at large to do what we can to effect a change in his favor. He has before him the scattered fragments of the "splendid system" of Internal Improvements. A half made luck of the best timber from the adjoining farms; the scattered rocks taken from the best quarries and hauled some 40 or 50 miles at a heavy expense; the broken, sliding banks of a half made canal through rich and formerly well cultivated fields; the broken abutments of a solitary and half made bridge; or the dreary and distant view of a deserted unfinished McAdamized road; these are presented to him in every direction throughout the State. The sickening view of these monuments of the folly of past years, are associated with other reflections still more perplexing—the future servitude of the laboring classes who are, as it were, for the next three generations chain-ed to the wheelbarrow, as the finishing stroke to the splendid projects of the last two Ex-Governors, Evans & Co. Under such discouragements, we shall endeavor to acquire such information, and to make such selections for our paper, as we think will assist and cheer forward the disengaged mechanics and farmer. Our interests are inseparably connected with theirs, and what is for their benefit, is for ours. Hence we shall be, also, uncompromising in hostility to every measure tending to make the rich richer, and the poor poorer; or, in the language of Daniel Webster, to let the Government take care of the rich, and the rich of the poor.

If our little sweet tempered hydraulic editor, the Journal will get up right early some morning before frost gets severe enough to injure green squashes, and procure the certificate of the President, Cashier, or Teller of the Indianapolis Branch, that Dr. Stipp, (the one who built the Indianapolis Hotel, remember,) did not get a discount passed, as we have stated, we will give him something more potent for his case than disdation.

According to the Journal, a vast number of editors are engaged in writing for this paper. We should think from its writing and resting, it imposed the Bank Junta's dictatorship and made that paper an organ to lay before the public their dark and forever secret operations. We are wide awake, though; the more Fool's familiars we have the more popular will our paper become.

Several counterfeited $100 bills on the Northern Bank of Kentucky were recently passed in the neighborhood of Evansville. The rogues have been arrested. Two of them by the name of Johnson. The Fiscal Bank passed the Senate on the 1st just as it came from the House, by a vote of 27 to 22. The Revenue Bill and the Diplomatic Bill, are the only bills of importance now to be acted on.

The Land Distribution Bill has received the approval of the Acting President. By an amendment of the Senate, however, the distribution is to cease whenever the duties on any article affected by the compromise act shall exceed 20 per cent. This provision no doubt is all that prevented a calo.

WHO DECENCY.—Arnold of Tennessee, on the floor of Congress, speaks of Mr. Tyler as a "miserable wretch," and Botts, the white negro of Virginia, in the same public manner, declared him to be as much a traitor as Benedict Arnold."

Original Poetry, communications, and much other matter crowded out.

AMAZING!

A little federal sheet, published at Vincennes, reads George H. Proffit out of the party in the following style. Profitt will like to be twisted of doing the "dirty work" of his party by one of his co-laborers, perhaps. "Down with the Veto Power," says this writer. Why don't he go the whole, and say "Down with the whole Constitution?" And why not keep before the people his federal doctrine as before avowed—"What right has the poor man to have equal privileges with him who is worth $100,000?"

HON. GEORGE H. PROFIT.

We are requested by the last Washington city paper, that Mr. Proffit has joined Messrs. Wise and Gilmer, and has been denouncing the whig party in unmeasured terms of abuse.
